

History of the Pan American Round Table Corpus Christi, Texas

- 1955 Organized in December
- 1993 Corpus Christi Caller-Times columnist Georgia Ann Geyer wrote an article featuring PART followed by another article by Richard Estrada
- 2002 San Antonio Museum of Art bus trip
William Spratling: Maestros de Plata and the Mexican Silver Renaissance
- 2002 Bravo Y Ole! Mexican and Spanish Dances – Olaya and Marisa Solis
- 2005 Martha I. Lara, Embajadora de Mexico to San Antonio visited
- 2006 30th Convention of the Alliance of Pan American Round Tables, our own Peggy Clark honored as incoming Alliance Director General
- 2007 Hosted Art Museum of South Texas Exhibit Opening: “Cardinales” – multiple artists from all over South America
- 2008 San Antonio Ursuline Academy (established 1851 by Ursuline nuns) trip
Fernando Botero art exhibit
- 2009 6 Student Scholarship Grants – $6,000 - $11,000
3 University Faculty Enrichment Grants – this year $5,750
- 2009 Martha Ofelia de Calderon, Alliance Director General visited
- 2010 Elsie Perez, Texas State Director visited
- 2010 Texas A&M University – Corpus Christi
Dr. Elisabeth Merrman-Jozwiak, Faculty Enrichment Grant recipient, spoke of her recent book on Latino writers of the Rio Grande

Corpus Christi PART yearly celebrates Pan American Day in a member’s home at an evening affair.

Yearly grants/scholarships are awarded to students and faculty who research and write on themes related to Pan American ideals.

Return to Corpus Christi Homepage...

Return to PARTT Homepage...